Village Bids Farewell to Molloy President Dr. Bogner

At the first Board of Trustees meeting of the year, Dr. Drew Bogner was recognized for his dedication and leadership during his time at Molloy College and presented with the Eugene J. Murray Outstanding Service Award. Bogner will retire in June 2020, capping a 20-year tenure where enrollment more than doubled, the addition of dorms and 88 academic programs.

"Dr. Bogner embodies all that is good about our Village from his unwavering dedication, commitment and willingness to get involved in our great community through his guidance to the students that pass through the hallways at Molloy College to the thousands of people he touched with his philanthropic work. Too say he will be missed is an understatement," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray.

A provost at Newman University in Wichita, Kansas, for nine years, Dr. Bogner assumed the presidency at Molloy in July 2000. During his tenure, Molloy College has grown from a predominantly baccalaureate undergraduate institution into a comprehensive, graduate-degree-granting school, increasing the number of academic programs from 62 to 150, including an additional 37 graduate programs and three doctoral programs. In addition, enrollment grew from 2,200 to 4,900 and the college built three dorms on a campus that previously had none. He opened the Barbara H. Hagan School of Nursing, and created The Public Square student center that houses the Madison Theater, a performing arts center.

In addition to shaping future leaders for the past 20 years, Dr. Bogner has been involved with the Rockville Centre Education Foundation, Tomorrow's Hope Foundation, and the Boy Scouts of America's Theodore Roosevelt Council. He has also spent countless hours serving on numerous boards for the betterment of Molloy and the Long Island community.

"While I am saddened to see him leave, I wish my friend all the best in retirement and thank him for enriching the lives of countless individuals during his tenure and teaching the future workforce that the power of education can not only change the lives of students but also the communities in which they live," Murray continued.

24th Annual St. Patrick's Parade to Hit the Streets of Rockville Centre

The 24th Annual Rockville Centre St. Patrick's Parade begins at noon on Saturday, March 21, starting from Maple Avenue and Long Beach Road and proceeding to the reviewing stand in front of St. Agnes Cathedral.

"The Annual St. Patrick's Parade is one of the most exciting days of the year in Rockville Centre," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray. "The downtown shops are booming; the streets are full of Rockville Centre pride and the Village is able to give back to three worthy causes."

This year's Grand Marshal, Ellen White, serves as a community leader, entrepreneur, and mom. Ellen is the creative force behind South Side High School's successful Centre Stage Program. It was through Ellen's experience with Centre Stage that BackYard Players & Friends (BYP & Friends) was born. Ellen co-founded BYP & Friends, an inclusive art-based program designed to enhance the social and interpersonal skills for teens and young adults. The program provides community enrichment programs in a loving and supportive environment. In addition, Ellen built an outdoor creative play space called "Mary's BackYard." This interactive play space includes elements of music, art, science, literature and theatre to create positive and meaningful experiences for the community at large. Ellen, whose sons all played lacrosse, has also served as President of Rockville Centre Lacrosse and founded the girl's lacrosse program. Most recently, Ellen organized the Village StoryWalk, a self-directed learning opportunity that encouraged families to join with the community and walk together through a story by following a path of pages. Participants walked the story of "The Survivor Tree" by Cheryl Somers Aubin at the Village 9/11 Memorial and in front of the Callery Pear Tree that was seeded from the Survivor Tree and was given to the Village of Rockville Centre from the National September 11th Memorial and Museum at the World Trade Center. In 2014, Ellen had the distinct honor of being named Rockville Centre Herald Person of the Year. A few years later, in 2017, BackYard Players & Friends was chosen as the local charity for the parade. Her efforts were again recognized in 2017 as she was awarded the New York State "Woman of Distinction" honor by State Senator Todd Kaminsky and then again in 2018 with the Eugene J. Murray Outstanding Service Award.

Over the last 20 years, the Rockville Centre St. Patrick's Parade, which is known as "The Parade that Cares and Shares" ®, has become one of the most successful and well-attended parades in New York State. It has become a source of not only cultural pride, but civic pride, as well. The parade is an incorporated not-for-profit organization that annually shares its success with three worthy charities, which are National, Irish, and locally focused. Since the parade's inception in 1997, over $1.2 million has been distributed to 67 individual Charities.

This year's charities are the Rockville Centre Breast Cancer Coalition, providing support services to those in the Rockville Centre community who have been diagnosed with breast cancer, as well as providing education and programs to help empower women and men to make informed decisions regarding their treatment; the Army Ranger Lead the Way Fund, an active duty, casualty assistance, recovery, transition and Veterans organization that supports the Rangers and families of the elite Special Operations 75th Ranger Regiment with financial assistance beyond what the government can offer; and the Holy Family School for the Deaf, creating a safe and cherishing environment which meets the language, communication and educational needs of each of its students.

Village of Rockville Centre Commits to Sustainable Solutions

The Village of Rockville Centre has signed an agreement with Covanta, a world leader in sustainable waste and energy solutions. The Village Department of Public Works oversees the disposal of an estimated 15,000 tons of garbage each year. Under the terms of the agreement, Covanta will handle the disposal of Rockville Centre's municipal solid waste. The five-year agreement is slated to begin in the late winter.

"After a considerable amount of due diligence, we are confident that Covanta will be an excellent partner and service provider to the Village of Rockville Centre," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray. "This partnership provides our great Village with a solution to waste management that preserves our valuable natural resources while generating clean energy."

For every ton of municipal solid waste processed at an Energy-from-Waste facility like Covanta, greenhouse gas emissions are reduced by an average of one ton. This is due to the avoidance of methane from landfills, the offset of greenhouse gases from fossil fuel electrical production and the recovery of metals for recycling. Covanta Hempstead processes over 1 million tons of waste each year and generates enough electricity to power 75,000 local homes and businesses.

All solid waste should be placed on the curb strip in watertight containers or sealed bags, not to exceed 32 gallons. Food waste, unrecyclable paper products, waxed cartons and packages, such as those used for beverages and frozen foods, plastic toys, utensils and tableware; discarded clothing are acceptable solid waste. Broken glass, concrete, construction debris, and propane tanks are prohibited. Paints, solvents, and batteries of any kind can be disposed of through the Town of Hempstead's S.T.O.P. Program at (516) 378-2200.

While waste cannot be eliminated, the Village of Rockville Centre also entered into a five-year agreement with Omni Recycling and encourages residents to reduce, reuse, and recycle. "Being more sustainable in our everyday lives helps our environment now and for future generations," said Mayor Murray.

On Wednesdays paper and cardboard including newspapers, magazines, and corrugated shipping boxes are to be placed curbside in the Village green recycling container. Soiled pizza boxes, food containers and wax coated cardboard are prohibited. Glass, metal and plastic containers should be rinsed out and placed in a blue Rockville Centre recycling bin, a designated container with an RVC recycling sticker attached or a clear plastic bag. Collection for these items depends on your area. Plastic, such as those used in toys, utensils and tableware, should not be included as it will contaminate the recycling stream and should be discarded as regular trash.

In addition, an E-Cycling Program provides residents with opportunities to recycle unwanted computer, televisions, and electronic equipment, keeping harmful toxins out of the waste stream. Every first Saturday of the month all year round from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., residents can discard their electronic equipment at 10 Sunrise Highway. The transfer station, on Sunrise Highway adjacent to the Public Works building, is open to the public to receive large items of trash, including furniture and appliances. The transfer station is open the first and third Saturday of the month from April until mid-November from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. with proof of residency.

"The critical importance of these value-added services cannot be overstated and handling our waste in a responsible manner and recycling instead of landfilling helps to build a more sustainable future," continued Mayor Murray."

RVC Showcased Holiday Spirit

Festive crowds came out for the annual Rockville Centre tree lighting at the Village Green. After a countdown and a flip of the switch, residents joyously gathered around the tree while students from South Side High School performed holiday songs. Rudolph and Frosty the Snowman visited, and Santa made an appearance on a Fire truck, courtesy of the Rockville Centre Fire Department.

The Recreation Center held its annual Breakfast with Santa's Helpers. Hundreds of families attended with elves serving pancakes, cereal, juice, milk and bagels. After eating Vixen's Fixin's, kids visited Santa, Rudolph and Frosty. Cheerful guests attended the annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Center Christmas party.

In conjunction with the National Council of Jewish Women, the Recreation Center held its annual Chanukah Party/Festival of Lights. In addition, the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Center had a special visit from the North Pole. Packed with presents, Santa brought smiles to all the crowd.

Monte Carlo Casino Night

FOSSI's annual Monte Carlo Fundraising Event will take place Friday, May 1st at 7 p.m. Every year the Sandel Center is transformed into a glittering casino with delicious food, open bar, entertainment and the chance to win great prizes through exciting gaming action! Deputy Mayor Kathleen Baxley has been selected as the 2020 honoree. For information about tickets or sponsorship opportunities please contact Chris O'Leary, Senior Services Director, 678-9268.

Snow Reminders

In the event of a snowstorm, the Village urges residents not to go out during or immediately after a snowstorm unless it is necessary. Crews will be able to do their job more quickly and completely if there is less traffic on the roads.

Residents and business owners are reminded that all sidewalks must be cleared within 24 hours after the end of a storm and snow should not be thrown into the roadway when clearing their driveways and sidewalks. If you have a fire hydrant on your property, snow should be cleared so they may be located easily in case of an emergency. Corner properties are responsible for clearing to the corner and curb cut access to allow pedestrian access to sidewalks.

Village Election Coming

The Incorporated Village of Rockville Centre will hold a special Village election on Tuesday, June 16, 2020. The following offices with the following terms will be contested for: one Trustee, for one year, to fill the balance of an unexpired term.

If you are interested in running for office, you may pick up a package with relative details in mid-March from the Clerk Treasurer's Office on the first floor of Village Hall. The Village will be accepting applications for absentee ballots for the general election beginning February 16th.

All voting in the June 16, 2020 Village election will be conducted at the John A. Anderson Recreation Center on North Oceanside Road from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Eligible persons wishing to vote, must be registered with the Nassau County Board of Elections at least ten days prior to the election.

Swift 911

Get alerted about emergencies and other important community news by signing up for the Village's Swift 911. Village Hall Comments by Mayor Francis X. Murray

On behalf of everyone at Village Hall, I would like to wish you all a happy New Year. Every New Year is an opportunity for a renewal of hope and a reassessment of goals. As your Mayor, I resolve to continue working with my fellow elected officials, Deputy Mayor Kathleen Baxley, Trustee Michael Sepe, Trustee Emilio Grillo, and Trustee Nancy Howard, as well as our dedicated employees to ensure that the Village of Rockville Centre remains one of the most desirable communities to live, work, and raise a family on Long Island.

I am very proud of our Village. Rockville Centre is a highly desirable community in part because we are self-sustainable, with our own power supply, police force, fire protection, and competent Department of Public Works. We have a great deal to offer besides our first-rate Village services, including our excellent schools, beautifully updated parks and ballfields, our booming Recreation Center and Sandel Senior Center for youth and seniors, our thriving downtown business district, and overall quality of life is second to none. However, we cannot sit back and rest on our achievements – more can be done.

We continue to make great strides on upgrades throughout the Village. We continue to improve our infrastructure, redoing roadways and tree plantings, as well as updating and improving our parks and ballfields. In 2019, we completed our second Iron-Removal Plant along Maple Avenue that provides up to 5.6 million gallons of iron free water daily to residents, as well as our newly upgraded Sewage Pump Station located on Seaman Avenue. Three of our four water towers in the Village have been refurbished and will complete the fourth tower in 2020.

We have left no stone unturned when it comes to receiving grants for new initiatives to hold down the Village property taxes. Throughout my tenure, we have secured over $30 million dollars in federal, state and local grants and gifts to make improvements in our Village.

We are committed to communicating with you and to responding to you because we believe that a responsive and responsible Village government is an important reason why Rockville Centre continues to be such a desirable community in which to live. I encourage you to log onto our website at www.rvcny.gov and follow the Village on our social media pages including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram to learn about news and upcoming events for 2020.

I consider it a privilege to be the Mayor of Rockville Centre. I am proud of the work we have done and look forward to continuing to improve on this great foundation in 2020.

Officer Michelle Tetonc Named Cop of the Month

In recognition of her dedicated performance of duty that resulted in the arrest of a subject for burglary, Officer Michelle Tetonc was named RVCPCD's "Cop of the Month." The Village commended Officer Tetonc for her diligence, dedication to duty, and highly professional conduct at the January Board of Trustees meeting.

At the last Board of Trustees Meeting of 2019, the Village of Rockville Centre welcomed the newest members of the Rockville Centre Police Department (RVCPCD) to the Village. As members of their families looked on, Commissioner James Vafeades administered the Law Enforcement Oath of Honor to Officers Peter Mori and Douglas Butera respectively. The new officers come to the Village with a wealth of experience in the field of Law Enforcement.

"We have tremendous respect for those that have chosen to work as first responders," said Mayor Francis X. Murray. "I welcome Officers Mori and Butera to the Village family and thank them, not only for their service in the USMC, but for choosing to serve the public as Police Officers."

Officer Peter Mori was born in Budapest, Hungary, however the Mori family immigrated to the United States in 1989 and quickly assimilated into the American way of life. As a young man, Mori was drawn to uniformed service, and upon his graduation from high school enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. He served one tour in Iraq when he was attached to the 26 Marine Expeditionary Unit assigned to take over key positions in Mosul Iraq.

After separating from active duty with an honorable discharge, Peter attended Hunter College where he attained a bachelor's degree in Film with a Minor in English. He worked on over forty film and television programs before he began processing for multiple Police agencies. During this period, Peter received certifications in translating Hungarian for the FBI. Peter was hired by the New York State University Police Department, where he met his wife, Michelle Mori, a New York State University Police Department Trooper herself, and attended Nassau County Police academy in 2015.

Officer Douglas Butera is a Long Island native having been born and raised in Saint James, New York. Upon graduating Smithtown High School in 2003, Douglas enlisted in the United States Marine Corps where he served four years active duty with two combat deployments to Iraq.

After receiving an honorable discharge from the United States Marine Corps, he was hired by the Long Island Railroad in 2008. Douglas worked for the LIRR for eleven years where he was an electrician by trade and promoted to a training specialist position in his department. He also enrolled in weekend and night classes to obtain his bachelor's degree in Organizational Management from St. Josephs College.

Douglas married his wife Nicole in 2016 and have two children, James and Brielle. His brother, Daniel Butera, is also a member of Law Enforcement, serving as a Police Officer for the Village of Lloyd Harbor.

"Officers Mori and Butera are welcomed additions to the Rockville Centre Police Department," said Commissioner James Vafeades. "Their wealth of experience, both in military and civilian life, will help to continue making our Police Department one of the best on Long Island," he continued.

In one of the more memorable moments of the swearing-in ceremony, Officer Mori's wife, Trooper Michelle Mori, had the honor of pinning her husband's shield on his uniform, while Officer Butera's brother, Officer Daniel Butera, pinned his brother's shield to his uniform.
